
ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

We are grateful that we now have the opportunity to thank all those people who have helped us in different capacities to complete this project work successfully.

This project work would not have been possible without the support and advice of our guide Mrs.C.S. Jayasheela, Assistant Professor, Department of Information Science and Engineering, B.I.T. We would like to express our deepest gratitude for his invaluable guidance and support throughout the project work

We would like to thank Dr. J. Prakash, Professor &Head of the Department, Department of Information Science and Engineering, B.I.T, who has continually helped us with his suggestions and ideas.

We would like to thank Dr. A. G. Nataraj, Principal, B.I.T, who has helped us by providing the necessary resources to complete this project work successfully.

Last but not the least, we would like to thank ourfriends and families for their unequivocal support and encouragement.
